RULES.

Rules and Bye-laws framed by the City Municipal Council under Section 49 (h) of the Mysore City Municipalities' Act for the Assessment and levy of tax on shops and places of business :—

1. Every person, who within the limits of the City Municipality, owns or uses a shop or a place of business for carrying on or transacting any trade or business shall get his name registered in the registers maintained in the Municipal office for the purpose of levy of this tax and shall pay the tax at the rates specified in the schedule as payable within fifteen days after notification by the Municipal Council that the tax would be levied and shall renew the registration from year to year after paying tax.

2. In these rules the word "person" shall include a firm, company or association or a co-operative institution.

3. In these rules the word "shop" means and includes a place of business where any trade is carried on, agencies or branches of a firm, company or association or a co-operative concern and also places where merchandise is either stored or stocked or manufactured.

4. Every person who starts any business or trade shall do so only after getting his name entered in the registers maintained for the purpose.

5. The Revenue Officer or any other officer appointed by the Municipal Council as Assessor of Shop-Tax shall receive the applications for the registration under these bye-laws and fix the classification under which the applicant has to pay the tax as under in the schedule.

6. The Assessor of Shop-Tax in determining the class to which the trade or business belongs shall take into consideration the nature of business, the locality in which the business is conducted, the rental value of the building and other relevant factors.

7. The application for registration shall be made in the prescribed form appended to these rules.

8. The Assessor or Shop-Tax shall within ten days from the date of receipt of the application, register the application and issue a notice fixing the class under which the applicant has to pay the tax.

9. The applicant shall within seven days from the date of notice under bye-law No. 8 pay the tax fixed for the class to which he is assigned by the Assessor of Shop-Tax.

10. The Assessor of Shop-Tax shall issue a certificate showing the number, classification and the tax paid and the period for which tax has been paid.

11. The person to whom the certificate is issued shall display this certificate in a prominent place in his shop or place of business.

12. In case where a person carries on a business or trade for less than six months continuously in the year only half the tax will be collected from the person.

13. The tax leviable under these rules on a firm, company or association may be levied and collected from any member of that firm, company or association.

14. When a person has more than one shop or place of business or branches or separate godowns, he will be liable to register each shop separately and pay the tax separately on each of them.

15. If a place of business is sub-let each portion is liable to be registered and taxed separately.

16. Any person who has paid the tax for the whole year and closes his shop or place of business during such period is entitled to a refund of the half the tax if the unexpired period is not less than six months and if he has given notice in writing of the fact of his closing the shop or place of business.

17 Application shall be made to the Municipal Commissioner, within 15 days before the commencement of each official year for the renewal of the certificate of registration issued under this bye-law with the tax payable under the schedule.

18. The registration certificate shall not be transferable. In the case of certificates lost duplicates may at the discretion of the Municipal Commissioner or of the officer authorised by him be issued on production of satisfactory evidence that the certificate is lost and on payment of one rupee for each duplicate.

19. An appeal from the order of the Assessor of Shop-tax shall lie to the Municipal Commissioner and the appeal shall be made within ten days from the date of the order appealed from.

20. Every occupier of building or land within the limits of the City Municipality, Mysore, shall furnish within three days of the requisition a list in writing containing the names of all persons occupying such building and specifying the business or trade of every such person.

21. Every person who changes either the designation of his firm or business or trade or his place of business shall within seven days of such change give intimation thereof to the Municipal Commissioner.

22. On failure to furnish the required information or on furnishing information which is untrue, under rules 20 and 21 of these bye-laws, such person shall on conviction be punishable with fine which may extend to Rs. 500.

23. An appeal lies to the Municipal Council from the Order of the Municipal Commissioner passed under these bye-laws. The appeal shall be filed within thirty days from the date of communication of the order that is disputed. Court fee stamps of the value of twelve annas shall be affixed to the appeal petitions.

24. A person infringing any of the rules 4 to 20 shall be liable on conviction to pay a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 in addition to other penalties he has to suffer under this law.
